B. c, (Apr), by No Nay Never - Etoile, by War Front. Trainer Weaver George. Bred by Coolmore (Ire).

NO NAY METS (IRE) broke sharp to take command from the gate, set a pressured pace in rapid fractions, cleared in upper stretch when called upon and drew away much the best. TOUPIE stalked the pace from the rail through the turn, angled three wide to mount a rally turning for home and finished well as second best. AIR RECRUIT tracked the leaders from two wide through turn, made a three widerally at the head of the lane, and kept on through the drive to hold the show. ATMIDNIGHT rated in mid-pack from between rivals and made a good late gain through the lane. RUDDY BUDDY slow early to be at the rear and closed well down the stretch showing good late interest. SEBASTIAN RUN well placed in striking position through the turn and lacked a closing response. WOODCOURT bumped at the start to drop out to the rear of the field and made a steady non-threatening gain throughout. A G DIAMOND reserved off the leaders and failed to gain ground. KING KONTIE sped up from two wide to press the quick pace to upper stretch and weakened in the lane. MI DINERO was never a threat. GONE ELVIS showed brief speed and was through early.
