TITO'S CALLING raced off the leader about mid-pack saving ground, was in about the two to three path in behind runners leaving the far turn seeking room, angled inside at the quarter pole to sneak through, bid and took the lead near the furlong grounds, drew clear under urging, was eased up a bit late. WICKENHEISER was bumped at the break, settled off the pace two to three wide early, advanced mildly up the backstretch inside, bided time on the far turn, shifted seven wide into upper stretch, kicked on to get the place. FLYSOFREEASHLEEB was caught four wide through the initial bend, raced outside at the back, began to move four then five wide and outsiderunners on the far turn, missed second. TIME FOR AN ANGEL broke out just a bit, moved quickly to the lead and clear to set the tempo, began to edge away up the backstretch, widened further still nearing the half to have a sizeable advantage. drifted in and out through the stretch while weakening but kept on for the minor award. ME AND MY SHADOW bumped a rival at the start, raced outside the eventual winner three wide and off the leading pair, failed to rally. BLACKDIAMOND DINNY saved ground through the first bend racing at the back, switched out up the backstretch, fanned eight wide into upper stretch, ran on with mild interest but needed more. DELPHIA fought restraint three to four wide early, failed to rally. SEATTLE CAUSEWAY was caught five wide entering the initial bend gradually shifting in while chasing the leader, stalked from about two wide into the far turn, faded in the stretch.
