B. g. (Apr), by Dandy Man-Ire – Zehrah-Ire, by Raven’s Pass. Trainer Mullins Jeff. Bred by Mr John Frances Keegan (Ire).

DANDY MAN SHINES (IRE) reserved early on and moved inside then in the two path, advanced three then four deep on the far turn, took over in upper stretch, quickly cleared inner rivals and was ridden out to the wire. AH JEEZ stalked in the two path then between rivals, entered the lane two to three wide, asked left handed then right handed in deep stretch and gained the place. SHARP AZA TACK showed early speed to take control from the rail, pressured from outside in the middle stages, dueled around the far turn and upper stretch, was no match for the winner in the furlong grounds, faltered late but managed to save the show. CALM SEA closest in two path around the clubhouse turn, applied pressure from outside on the back stretch, dueled around the far turn, fought to upper stretch and flattened to fourth. CAMILO took a stalking position along the inside, ridden patiently through the far turn while continuing to save ground, moved off the fence in the lane and could not produce a bid when called upon. SMART MO rated three deep in the early going, started to weaken under urging on the far turn, trailed two wide into the lane and faded.
