B. g, (Feb), by Clodovil-Ire - Queenie Keen-Ire, by Refuse To Bend-Ire. Trainer D'Amato Philip. Bred by N Hartery (Ire).

UNCONQUERABLE KEEN (IRE) took control quickly from inside, set the pace into and around the turn, inched away when roused in upper stretch, urged right handed in the final sixteenth and stayed clear to the wire. TURN ON THE JETS (IRE) broke well then stalked the leader up the backstretch, rounded the bend in the two path, closest in pursuit entering the final furlong, could not make any headway on the winner and stayed on to secure second. LANE WAY chased along the rail to the stretch, moved out in the lane and finished willingly for the show honors. DANIEL'S MAGIC tracked the pacesetter outside a rival, navigated the turn two wide, moved out in the lane and lacked further response. HONEY PANTS was a bit keen early and rider had to take a brief hold early, saved ground around the bend but had to pause when put in tight at the quarter pole, looked to tip out at the top of the stretch then elected to stay inside when DANIEL'S MAGIC move out and lacked a rally in the late stages. JOHNNY PODRES settled early off the inside, went three wide into the turn, turned for home in the four path and could not rally. SEE THROUGH IT chased under coaxing off the inside early, rounded the bend in the three path and faded down the lane.
