Ch. f, (Mar), by Firing Line – Lily So Lovely, by Run Away and Hide. Trainer Devereux Patrick Jr. Bred by Diane M Harrington DVM (Ala).

FIRE UP TIGER pressed two wide, vied along with an outer pair of bidders into the far turn, got headed by those foes turning for home, yet fought on through midstretch and forged an advantage in the final sixteenth. LIKEN IT broke outwardly, settled off the pace in the two path, ranged up outside of the leading trio approaching the far turn, vied four wide around that bend, gained an advantage entering the lane, but drifted out when the rider changed to left handed pressure entering the final sixteenth and was bested by an inner bidder late. FOOLISH STEVE stalked outside of the top pair, bid when an outer rival forced his hand approaching the far turn, vied between horses around that bend, dueled into the final furlong but yielded late. UNCLE BRAD was sent to the fore, dictated terms before vying with a trio of outer bidders into the far turn, but was headed turning for home and gradually gave way. KELLYS THE BOSS lagged well behind the rest and surpassed a tiring rival around the far turn. GOTTAGONOWNOW broke a step slow and steadied when an inner rival cut across her path, advanced to an inside stalking position around the first turn, but chased the leading quartet into the far turn and weakened in the two path around that bend.
