SKELLY broke sharp, quickly clear, three wide into the turn, breather after coming in a bit to the two path late in the bend, roused midstretch, held under firm handling. SIR WELLINGTON angled in entering the turn, saved ground through the bend, crept closer to the winner when straightened for home, could do no more with the winner the final furlong, clear of the others. EDGE TO EDGE moved off the rail early in the turn, steered out a bit more to be three wide for the slowly getting to the runner up late. TUT'S REVENGE off a step slow, well back while inside, improved position with some mild late interest. WALKER'S WIN off the pace, four wide turn, went evenly through the lane. JOE FRAZIER in the two path behind the pace, had nothing for the drive. MORELLO broke back, trailed through the turn, remained back.
