KATAR went to the front to set a pressured pace to early stretch and drew off. MY MAN BIGGIE had no early speed through the turn then moved between horses entering the stretch, was coaxed at the three sixteenths pole and found his best strides late. BRAYBRAY was hustled along to press the pace to early stretch and was out kicked in the final furlong but was a clear third. BIG JACK tracked the leaders from the two path but was not a threat. LOOPY DUDE saved ground to no avail.
