LIVING MAGIC had a narrow lead setting the pace on the rail down the backside, put away the first rival two furlongs from the finish, braced for the second challenger outside in upper stretch, repelled that one at the furlong marker and continued to be stubborn on the front end to prevail at the wire holding off the deep closer at the wire. DANCING DUCHESS had a good spot watching the engaging pair early on, tracked with runners on either side at the half, waited throughout the turn behind horses, angled out four wide off the wall of runners in upper stretch and closed strongly in the final sixteenth to make it a race at the finish. STORMCAST hounded the pace outside down the back straight, continued to keep the winner honest throughout the turn, started to give way with rivals on either side at the quarter pole and resurged in the last furlong to capture third in the end. BOLT ENOREE settled near the back three deep outside early on, was asked to get a better position down the backstretch to track the top duo outside at the half, crept close to the leaders outside on the turn, loomed the threat four wide turning for home and stalled under left handed urging in the final sixteenth. CRAFTY OAKS broke in at the start, settled near the rear inside, was nudged along on the fence through the turn keeping up with the leaders, straightening out for the drive was asked for more inside, offered little effort and could not be a player running to the finish. PARTY was bumped at the start, trailed on the fence, was hustled to get in contact with the field down the backside, could not close the gap to runners on the turn and was not a factor in the stretch drive.
