NORAH G vied for the lead, took the rail, set the pace, was in hands with stalkers right off of her, showed the way into the stretch from the fence, past the quarter pole was asked and kept on point, turned back any who tried to challenge and took the win commandingly. FINAL QUEST was off mid pack, raced in between horses four wide, maintained her position until the eighth pole, shifted out seven wide and closed well getting up for second place honors. MISS PRIORITY vied for the lead, stalked the leader from the leaders hip, stayed on with the leader until the furlong ground then was caught late by an outside closing rival, settling for third place. ZYDECO MUSIC was off a bit slow, raced on the inside in the two path, saved ground through out, shifted out a bit in the upper stretch, then shifted back inside while closing ground. NONEYA raced in the middle of the field, raced between horses in the two path, maintained position, then closed with a mild bid late. LAKE MARIE vied for the lead, shuffled back into a stalking position, stalked from the three path, was wide through the turn, and had no rally late. ROYAL O'HAIGAIN ran from off of the pace in the two path, and finished with an even effort. FREE LIKE A GIRL was off of the pace early, stayed to the outside racing in the seven path, improved position slightly down the back side, was mid pack through the turn, was cued at the top of the lane but showed little. SPIRITED BEAUTY missed the break, raced on the rail, passed tired ones late. FIRST I'VE SEEN made no impact. BELEOUT was mid pack in the two path, saved ground through out and gave way in the stretch. HALFPRICED was no threat.
