Dk. b or br. f, ( Mar ), by Biondetti – Tour for Love , by Express Tour . Trainer Smith Larry E. Bred by Justice Farm Greg Justice ( Ohio ).

TWISTED JUSTICE sped up the fence to take command entering the main track, set a pressured early pace, opened a clear advantage at the head of the lane when called upon and drew off as much best without being threatened. DANZANITEAWAY bumped from the inside at the break, dropped to the rear of the field to be well back early, made up ground to the turn, circled five wide in the turn and steadily advanced down the lane to gain the place. FEELING EASY tracked the pacesetters down the backside, ranged up at the quarter pole and failed to sustain her bid in the lane finishing evenly. TIERNEY pressed the pace through the turn and weakened in the stretch drive. MAYBETHONE broke outward bumping rival away from the gate, moved to a stalking position down the backside and flattened out in the stretch. LUCKY STUFF chased the early pace, pulled up at the three-eighths pole with an injury and was vanned off.
