CARMELINA accelerated to the early lead, hugged the rail setting a pressured pace, responded when set down approaching the eighth pole and edged away. CAP CLASSIQUE prompted the pace outside the winner, finished willingly but was second best. MUNNY GRAB saved ground around the turn, remained along the rail through the stretch and finished evenly. ROANANGODDESS, four deep under rating down the backstretch, circled the turn in the three path and flattened out. KISSEDBYANANGEL broke in the air, raced in the two path between horses around the turn and in the stretch and failed to rally. SHINE ON MOON was a brief factor between horses and gave way on the turn.
