WAR CAMPAIGN tracked the pace firmly in hand and along the rail, crept a bit closer into the far turn, lodged a rail bid soon after under clever handling, took over, clear while drifting out past the furlong marker, held sway to the wire under steady handling. SPEED BIAS away in good order, stalked the issue three wide, remained in good position through the final turn, lacked a winning punch while remaining outside. STRONG QUALITY broke well, showed the way in the two path, gave up the rail to the winner in the second turn, gradually weakened, lasted for the show. SEIZE THE NIGHT settled off the pace three wide, turn in an even effort, lacked a closing kick. DENINGTON last away, continued to lack speed, moved out four wide when making a mild advance second turn, flattened out in the drive. DOUBLE CROWN finished after a half, gave way, well back.
