PASCAL alternated with ATWELL for the lead during the initial three quarters while taking the inside route, regained control in upper stretch after being roused, dug in when the runner up drew alongside at the eighth pole and proved best while being kept busy to the wire. THAT'SRIGHTOFFICER rated four wide during the run around the bend, was set down after turning for home, reached the top one's flank at the furlong marker, but could advance no further and had to be settle for being second best. SLAMBINO reserved three wide, proved to be no match for the top duo during the stretch drive. ATWELL a pace for six furlongs while racing off the inside, tired. SOUTHWEST was never in contention.
