OCALA JIM sat forwardly placed in the three path racing around the clubhouse turn, worked out a tuck onto the inside route coming to the end of the backstretch, gained room to launch a rally cutting the corner into the lane once the former pacesetter, that being CASHMERE CAT angled to the outside entering the stretch, slipped by hugging the hedge nearing the eighth pole to take over, kept sufficiently in the clear. ADIRONDACK DANCER saved ground, rallied down the stretch drafting behind the eventual winner, tipped to be outside that opponent with under a sixteenth remaining, continued onward willingly to procure the place. IRONICUS got off sluggishly, raced from off the inside, fanned into the seven path during the initial portion of the stretch drive, charged down the outside of the course with strong, but belated energy while securing the show. POWERFUL INSTINCT strung out four wide on the opening bend, travelled three wide on the next one, held on reasonably well to the wire to earn the last major check. ENERGY SPIRIT three wide on the first turn, was placed towards the inside before being once more three wide and asked for run at the five-sixteenths marker, angled into the six path during the ensuing furlong, got straightened away and finished well. KISS OF THUNDER left the inside route near the half mile pole, had already been put to urging swinging five wide into the stretch, mustered up a mild response to mainly improve position. ORINO stalked the pace from the two path for nearly six furlongs before tiring. CASHMERE CAT showed the way from the inside, tracked the new leader while continuing to hug the hedge on the far turn, angled outward entering the stretch, wound up having little left and gave way. IDLE AMERICAN reserved near back of the pack, was given some rein and unleashed an eye-catching three wide middle move to grab the advantage, tucked into the two path after having achieved it, got overhauled by the end of the furlong grounds and steadily backed away. BARATTI raced along the outside, commenced the stretch three wide, had no offering.
