BIRDSTONE steadied in the initial furlong, steadied again in traffic entering the first turn, recovered to race forwardly, saved ground when making a mild gain after six furlongs but tired in the drive. HASSLEFREE bumped at the start, was outprinted early three wide then was no threat. TAP DANCING MAUK roughed at the start, was far back for a half and could not menace. STOLEN TIME swerved out at the start, was straightened to be forwardly placed three wide, held on well for six furlongs and faded.
