NONEYA settled between rivals to be reserved off the early pace, rallied fourwide on the turn to be well placed turning for home, angled to the clear in upper stretch and closed well to be up in deep stretch. CHARLIE T broke alertly to be in front, raced from two wide pressing the pacesetter through the turn, took command at the head of the lane, responded willingly down the stretch and was unable to hold off the closing winner. BLESSED ASSURANCE slow early to be the trailer, split rivals while rallying in upper stretch and finished well to be gaining late. BELEOUT reserved off the pace through the turn and made a steady advance from midway on the turn to be closing ground in the stretch. NORAH G set a pressured pace from the inside to upper stretch and kept-on down the lane while gradually weakening. FIRST I'VE SEEN unhurried for the first half and passed tiring rivals in the lane. ROYAL O'HAIGAIN went evenly without impact. FINAL QUEST stalked the pace from five wide and faded coming home. RUE LALA raced in early contention from five wide and lacked a response when called upon.
