GANGSTER dropped back early, moved up four to five wide through the far turn and kicked clear late under steady handling. TACOS AND TEQUILA vied between horsed, kept on through the drive but was no match for the winner. FIGHT MONEY stalked the pace, raced three wide through the far turn and had no final winning bid. BAAL was allowed to settle early, swung wide into the lane and raced evenly through the drive with no closing run. D C CALL ME GEORGE raced five to six wide through the far turn and had no response. MASTER CHIEF MIKE set a pressured early pace along the inside and faded. CHARMING SMILE pressed the pace from the outside and was empty near the three sixteenths pole.
