GRACE AND GRIT rated in behind off the leaders while racing a bit keenly, went about two wide into the turn taking closer order, shifted in to cut the corner near the quarter pole, bid inside at the top of the stretch, led about the three-sixteenths, drew clear, was eased up in the final strides. BOURBON SERENGETI pressed the early pace then took a narrow lead, dueled two to three wide into the turn putting away the inside foe to move clear then found a new challenger up the rail at the top of the stretch, was no match for that one but second best. ROYAL BOBBIE was guided outside soon after the start and moved forward ranging up just off the leaders flank, stalked three to four wide into the turn, was encouraged along from the five-sixteenths but weakened thereafter. MOONLIGHT GAL had the early lead shifting in nearer the fence, was overtaken after a quarter, re-bid then tussled with the outside foe in a brief duel, began dropping back after the half, faded in the stretch.
