PERIPHERY took over inside foes after a furlong and handled outer pressure into the turn, shook clear two wide near the three eighths, entered the stretch three wide under asking, drifted in briefly near mid stretch, corrected then held sway. NORTH LAKE KATE, five wide, edged up nearing the half, gained outside runners past the five sixteenths and churned on to gain the place. SUSAN YVONNE forced the early pace between rivals, chaesd four wide between rivals past the five sixteenths then came up empty in the final sixteenth. MISS MADAME, three deep disputing the early pace, chased on four wide between horses leaving the three eighths, steadied briefly nearing the quarter pole, angled out but lacked a solid finish. COUNTRY SONATA under pressure three to four wide mid turn, failed to respond. NOT REALLY SCARY raced well wide throughout and failed to get involved.
