WAITIN'ONASUNNYDAY brushed with outer foe shortly after the start, ranged up to vie for the lead along the inside before entering the turn, was coaxed along rounding the turn taking command at the quarter, finally entered a drive at the three-sixteenths for a firm finish. ABRIGADO brushed with inner foe shortly after the start, sat close up along the inside before taking a slight hold a the five-eighths, continued two wide through the turn while receiving some shoulder taps, began asking about the three eighths before making a five wide bid at the quarter, rallied well down the stretch to earn the place honors. RULE SIXTY TWO stumbled leaving the gate and bumped inner foe, ranged up to stalk the pace four wide going into the turn, continued along finding a prominent position in the upper stretch, continued fighting for the minor awards shifting in to bump ICAN at the sixteenth, was able to hold onto the show award. MOUQEER took charge two wide for the run up the backstretch, met with challengers on both sides in the after the early stages to vie for command between runners through the turn, started asking about the five-sixteenths but ultimately yielded at the quarter, kept on down the lane and was bumped in by ICAN at the sixteenth. ICAN bumped with outer foe at the start, ranged up into a forward position during the early stages and crossed in at the five-eighths, vied for command three wide through the turn, began nudging along at the three-eighths to continue in a competitive position in the upper stretch but lacked a closing bid, was bumped between runners at the final sixteenth. THE MARKINATER sat close up to the pace in the early stages before taking a hold at the five-eighths as ICAN crossed in front, trailed three wide through the turn before being cued at the three-eighths, took to the outside in the final furlong but was unable to form a rally.
