DON'T CROSS ALEXIS tracked four-wide down the backstretch, never far back, moved up midway through the turn to take over the lead, met little resistance, and drew off in the stretch. TANGANYIKA raced in a box for the first quarter mile, waited for room through the turn, then tipped out to the three path and ran on well to gain second. TUTTA BELLA tracked the pacesetter under some restraint, was let loose approaching the half-mile pole, led briefly before yielding the lead to DON'T CROSS ALEXIS midway through the turn, was kept under strong handling the rest of the way but had trouble with the lead change, faltered in the stretch, and was outfinished for the place. PANIC MODE broke inward at the start, hustled to the lead, was overtaken past the half-mile pole, and had little to offer in the stretch. LITTLE JUANITA got forced in by the outside rival, tracked close up but at the rear in the compact field early on, then struggled to keep up on the turn and trailed the rest of the way. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
