CURLS NITE OUT was content to settle behind the other two, always in range, bided time to the far turn, started a bid midway on that turn, then engaged SILENT SKY from the quarter pole in a spirited battle down the stretch, appeared destined to finish second, but found something in the final yards and got a nose in front in the shadow of the wire. SILENT SKY settled in second position, always traveling comfortably, ranged up to press for the lead approaching the three-furlong pole, took over the lead, then was challenged by CURLS NIGHT OUT head of the stretch, battled gamely through the lane keeping a head in front but yielded grudgingly in the last jumps. Q BOND assumed the early lead was left to dictate the fractions, led the way to the half, then gave way readily to SILENT SKY approaching the three-furlong pole, tired and was not a factor in the late stages. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
