MISS CLARKE sped away before being challenged on the turn but fended off that rival to inch away going into the stretch and drew clear. VICKI ROSE was pinched back at the start while bumping with rival then chased the leaders from three wide through the turn before making a late run to be a clear second. ZOOMAHA stumbled leaving the starting gate then was hustled along to make a rail bid on the turn to duel with the leader but couldn't keep pace and weakened. MESCAT had an awkward start then advanced three wide through the turn but lacked room at the top of the stretch and shifted out near the eighth pole to keep on to finish evenly. OUTRAGE broke inward and bumped rival then raced wide down the backstretch while dropping back and was outrun. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
