SIR EXTON vied three across around the first turn, set a pressured pace, drew clear into the second turn and held the advantage under steady urging. COBBLESTONE BRIDGE was unhurried early, saved ground while racing in the back, angled out into the second turn, bid willingly to threaten, didn't have enough late and finished second best. MR. WHO threw his head and bobbled at the start, was hustled along, advanced outside on the backstretch to stalk, bid, came up empty late and settled for show. PRINCE RAMA vied between horses around the first turn, pressed the pace along the inside, tired into the second turn, dropped back and gave way. SCOTTISH STORM vied inside around the first turn, dropped back to stalk the pace, backed up entering the second turn, angled out to be widest in the drive, tired and gave way.
