Dk. b or br. g, (Mar), by Atta Boy Roy – Beautiful Daniele, by A.P. Indy. Trainer Lund Valorie. Bred by Larry Romaine (Wash).

BODENHEIMER was sent for pace and disputed three deep in the opening furlong, took a narrow lead approaching the turn, shifted in on PHILO BEDDOE near the three eighths, continued on the lead while saving ground around the bend, went to a drive in upper stretch and ran on resolutely. HIGH PROBABILITY broke inward, chased the leading trio down the back straight, saved ground around the turn while unhurried, swung three wide into the lane and responded when asked for a rally, could not reel in the pacesetter but ran on with interest for place. IT'S BOBS BUSINESS settled at the rear, chased in the four path on the turn, shifted six wide into the upper stretch, and improved belatedly for the show. PAT'S PADDOCK PICK came away quickly, vied inside of PHILO BEDDOE and BODENHEIMER early, settled back off that pair near the half, tracked that pair around the turn, swung four wide into the lane, chased on mildly through midstretch but flattened late and was caught for the show. PHILO BEDDOE vied between horses in the opening furlong, continued to press inside of BODENHEIMER approaching the turn, took up at the three eighths when BODENHEIMER came in, switched outside of that foe, rebid outside of him approaching the lane, proved no match from the three sixteenths despite being driven, and flattened out. GIANNO settled in second last early, was pushed along in the three path on the far turn, swung five wide into the lane, went to a drive but lacked the needed kick.
