Dk. b or br. m, (Feb), by Mor Spirit – Boston Mine, by Mineshaft. Trainer Sharp Joe. Bred by Beau Lane (Ky).

BIG DIG steadied between horses when an outer foe crossed over early on, tracked three wide, bid in hand three deep around the far turn, drove clear in upper stretch, but drifted in and briefly flopping back to her left lead in midstretch, got collared by an outer challenger late and lasted. CORA'S LEGACY vied two wide, led as an outer foe bid around the far turn, got outkicked by that one entering the lane, kept on to offer a rebid in the final sixteenth but missed. LITTLE DIXIE stalked near the two path, chased the leading trio around the far turn, shifted out to the four path in upper stretch and stayed on willingly. TORTUGA ISLAND ved for the lead with an outer rival, then with an outer pair around the far turn and faded entering the lane. I HAD THAT ONE TOO trailed in teh four to three path, then the four to five path entering the lane, shifted inwardly and lacked a bid.
