Ch. g, (Feb), by Curlin – American Entente , by War Front. Trainer Stidham Michael. Bred by Stone Farm & Speedway Stables LLC (Ky).

COMPATRIOT got shut off shortly after the break and had to check, then got back into stride and advanced two wide and then moved out to be five wide nearing the five-sixteenths while advancing in hand, came six wide off the turn and then was sent down leaving the three-sixteenths and put to right handed crop urging and got up late to prove best. ELEOS dueled for the lead on the inside and continued to battled off the turn and made a bid to shake clear leaving the furlong marker, then was guided out to herd the winner by the sixteenth marker and was caught late and had to settle for being second best. BELLA'S BRO dueled for the lead two to three wide on the turn and fought on to the furlong marker but weakened and then held the show award. UNDERTAKER rushed up on the outside to stalk the pace three to four wide and came four wide off the turn and weakened, missed show. JOEL'S BOY tracked the pace on the inside and weakened. GREY BULL stalked the pace in between rivals three to two wide and weakened. CREVALLI was settled early, three to six wide on the turn but weakened in the lane. I AM PEPE was off slowly and trailed throughout.
