MOTSKARI relaxed well off the pace down the backside, given the queue five wide leaving the quarter pole, sustained the rally through the final sixteenth, kicked clear under the wire. SHEA D WORLD broke sharp, set a swift solo pace down the backside, collared in upper stretch, chased on late, bested the rest. ROL AGAIN DANCER stumbled at the start, tracked the pace inside into the far turn, clean rail bid leaving the furlong marker, stayed on willingly for the show. SMOOTH RICO broke alertly, chased the swift pace two wide into the far turn, had no late punch. TAPIO saved ground well off the pace, never factored. RIP THORN raced off the pace four wide down the back stretch, never threatened.
