WRIT IN STONE tracked four to five wide, roused at the quarter pole, responded to urging late and drove clear under confident handling. STONE HOUSE hurried away, moved four wide to avoid traffic, rallied into the stretch and was outfinished. INDEPENDENCE NEIGH vied hard outside while four wide, showed the way through the far turn, and flattened midstretch. KANGAROO COAST was checked leaving the backstretch from along the rail, and gave a solid late effort. BRI'S BOY rider took hold in traffic in the backstretch, and closed late. SILENT COUNT trailed and offered a late mild bid. VANTASTICCANAVERAL was outsprinted to the turn and tired.
