Dk. b or br. g, (Apr), by Almanzor–Fr – Tesoro–Ire , by Galileo–Ire . Trainer Clement Miguel. Bred by James Wigan (GB).

I AM I SAID (GB) , patiently handled between horses down the backstretch, commenced his rally in the two path leaving the far turn, swung to the four path at the head of the stretch, bid in mid stretch and prevailed in an extended drive. SILVER FRONT saved ground the first turn, was forwardly placed down the backstretch, advanced between horses on the far turn, gained a short lead in upper stretch and gave way grudgingly. HANKSDIVININGROD, nicely taken to the inner rail entering the first turn, remained along the rail, briefly steadied on heels entering the far turn, came into the stretch in the two path and rallied mildly. THE LAST SCIP lacked speed outside horses, circled the far turn four to five wide and passed tried rivals. WITHOUT (IRE) , rated outside horses down the backstretch, advanced four deep turning for home to reach a striking position then gave way. MICKEY SHILLELAGH showed speed along the inner rail and faded in upper stretch. POWERFUL , four wide the first turn, rushed up outside horses to the lead on the backstretch, remained prominent to the stretch then tired. PERSISTEN was a forward to the far turn then faltered.
