B. f, (Feb), by Caravaggio – Il Mulino, by Elusive Quality. Trainer O'Neill Doug. Bred by Donald R Dizney LLC (Ky).

LITTLE OPAL sprinted clear, showed the way on the inside through the turn, coaxed along into the stretch, continued clear with a furlong remaining, asked right handed at the sixteenth pole and responded nicely by drawing off late. FIRST OR LAST was closest in pursuit from the two path, loomed to the outside of the leader turning for home, watched the winner kick away in the furlong grounds and stayed on to prove second best. BRAZORIA (GB) lacked early speed, took the turn two wide, split foes at the sixteenth pole and gained third. HIGH SOCIETY U chased after the pacesetter in the two path, moved out at the top of the lane and could not produce a bid. GREY MATTER took a stalking position on the inside, remained on the fence to the stretch and weakened. DECISIVE DECEPTION traveled outside a rival near the back in the early going, went three wide around the bend and failed to respond when called upon. TIZ ALLURING chased from off the pace then pulled while moving to the inside and had to take hold off heels leaving the backstretch, saved ground through the turn and failed to rally. CHERRY CANDY was off slow from the inside, raced along the fence at the back and never made an impact.
