LEE STREET lacked early speed, moved up turn, split rivals, angled to the outside and proved the best late. HMS DIAMOND pressed the pace, took the lead at the 1/2 pole, drove clear down the lane, but couldn't hold off the LEE STREET for the win. CAJUN CUPID raced within contention, was close throughout, but proved no match for the top two. SARGE CUSTIVITY dueled on the front end, weakened and finished evenly. SOFT HANDS challenged for the early advantage, faded and was no threat late. BETRBREADY lacked early speed, improved position, but was no factor. BEE AURELIUS raced evenly near the back and was never a factor. A G'S CHARLIE raced in the middle of the field and faded. BLAZING CIRCLE raced evenly near the back and showed little. COME SEE ME always raced near the back and was outrun.
