Ch. f, (Apr), by Mitole – Arlene's Holiday, by Harlan's Holiday. Trainer Landry Allen. Bred by Jim Montgomery & Natalie Montgomery (La).

RIDEAROUNDSALLEY settled four-wide in the second flight not far off the pace battle, moved up approaching the quarter pole to bid three-wide for the lead, briefly had trouble with the lead change while dueling with an inner rival, got straight by mid-stretch, and edged ahead in the final yards. IT AIN'T LIKE THAT disputed the early pace between horses, took a short lead into the stretch, then battled back when confronted by RIDEAROUNDSALLEY but yielded to that one while holding on to the second spot. GLISTENING GAL was involved in the early pace battle without really being asked, failed to quicken when the top two separated from the pack, kept on under steady handling, but had to settle for the minor award. LITTLE EM lost the path and took up after the break, giving the rest a head start, gradually advanced to regain contact at the three-furlong pole, circled the field three-wide to the stretch, swung five-wide into the lane, but flattened out. CRUISING THE TOWN contested the early pace three-wide, made a serious push for the lead at the three-furlong pole, loomed to mid-stretch, then flattened. RY RY raced between horses in the second flight and did not offer a late bid. PERFECT DELIGHT raced close up on the inside down the backstretch, was without a clear path early on the turn, did not respond when asked to go through an opening and put to urging approaching the three-furlong pole, and weakened in the stretch.
