Gr/ro. f, (Feb), by Half Ours – Those Lion Eyes , by Lion Heart . Trainer Landry Allen. Bred by Tom Curtis & Wayne Simpson (La).

MY OTHER HALF broke on top and went a length clear early, maintained the advantage through the turn with the rider not asking, was still in hand past the eighth pole as SID'S CHICA presented a challenge to the outside, was then roused and responded to just hold on in the final yards. SID'S CHICA brushed with the inside rival at the start, raced close up through the initial furlong along the rail, dropped back a bit on the turn, kept to the inside, came out a path in upper stretch, ranged up to challenge from the top of the stretch, was gradually cutting into the margin but came up short. MISS LANDLOCK was three-wide and between horses in the tracking group, broke away from that pack to go after MY OTHER HALF approaching the quarter pole, could not kick on with the top pair in the final furlong, but finished best of the rest to claim the minor award. PARADISE RIDGE settled mid-pack despite some early coaxing from the rider, started to run on with three furlongs to go, finished with interest, but was not doing enough in the late stages to pose a threat. WHISKEY CHASIN was outpaced early and put under a ride after the start, chased from the back of the pack to the stretch, came out four-wide and closed with mild gain, but was not good enough. DAT HINT broke out, making contact with the adjacent rival, settled in mid-pack along the rail, continued to save ground to the stretch, and finished evenly. SUGAH GEM ducked out after the break to race very wide to the turn, dropped down and moved up to join the forward group through the turn, was in range of the leaders past the quarter pole, but flattened out in upper stretch. LACEY'S ACE was off slowly, went four-wide through the turn, then came out five-wide for the stretch run, ducked in before the furlong marker, and continued to race erratically to the wire. CLEARLY A DREAM EM took a bump after the start but was hustled to get forward position, pressed the pace between horses, then weakened after passing the three-furlong pole and came up empty in the stretch.
