B. g, (Apr), by Bernardini – Voyelle, by Broken Vow. Trainer Govea Cesar. Bred by Arindel (NY).

BIGFOOT SIGHTING close from the start, got clear after a quarter onto the backstretch, continued to show the way far turn, asked along late in that bend, checked out in upper stretch to kick on and stay comfortably clear to the finish. MY PAL SWEET away in good order, forwardly placed into the first turn closest to the inside, tracked the winner from along the rail up the backstretch, proved no match for that one through the stretch while holding sway for the runner up position. STRONG EAGLE broke out, rank and was away slowly, lacked speed off rail, three wide through the final turn, staged a mild rally down the lane to be slowly gaining for the place spot. GET THEM JUSTIN off the pace and the inside, came four wide for the drive, modest rally out in the strip to improve position a bit. NATIVE STAR off the pace while well wide past the wire the first time, four wide through the first bend, continued outside and was four wide through the second, picked off a rival or two down the lane without posing a serious threat. RUNNINGINTHEMONEY forwardly placed while three wide through the first turn, moved a bit closer to chase the winner the middle half mile, gave way in the drive. FEELTHEBEAT four wide into the first turn when off the pace, had nothing for the drive.
