NOW WE GO was hustled to the front, vied along the rail for the early lead, took control at the half-mile marker, widened on the turn, and was much the best under a mild hand ride. ARMY NURSE contested the early pace between horses, dropped out midway through the turn, then came back on to claim second. SHE'S A BOND TOO was between rivals in the second flight, responded when asked from the half-mile pole, moved up three wide on the turn for home and secured the minor award. PRAIRIE BRAT pressed the early pace three-wide, then weakened with a furlong to go. GIRLS A LEGACY was wide down the backstretch, then swung four or five wide into the home stretch and was unable to rally. MAJESTIC TORNADO raced inside with the second group, steadied slightly at the furlong pole but could not regain momentum. This race was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
