Ch. g, (Mar), by West Road – Nothinglefttogain , by To Honor and Serve . Trainer Lee Mark. Bred by Colleen Davidson (Okla).

WEST OF TOWN broke running from the outside, narrowly showed the way into the first turn off the inside, dueled up the backstretch in the two path, edged clear through the final turn and cruised home as clearly best. MR OKLAHOMA outrun in the early going, tucked toward the inside and moved forward first turn, continued to pursue the dueling leaders toward the inside, came three wide for the drive, up late for the place. HE'S A ROCK broke out start, bumped foe, dueled inside the winner for five furlongs, could not keep pace with that one late in the final turn, shifted out a bit for the drive, continued to chase the victor in vain, caught late for the second spot. K Q SPIRIT bumped just after the start, raced well back early, lodged a mild middle move and continued with some limited interest the final furlong to be closing the gap on the lead group. LYMAN forwardly placed early while between horses, fell off that lead group onto the backstretch and failed to menace thereafter. POKEY broke a bit back, moved up to chased the lead pack into the first turn, bore out badly through that bend, was briefly righted onto the backstretch then began a steady retreat. This race was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
