ISABEL LUDLOW tracked the pace from the inside, closed in through the turn to take charge at the top of the stretch, opened up a few lengths before fighting hard to maintain her diminishing advantage in the final furlong. LIFE OF SATURDAYS opted to be the early trailer, rallied well along the outside to earn the place honors. BETHY chased the pace a few lengths back, claimed second at the eighth, continued to rally before getting out-finished for the place award and earned the show. WHAT'S CRACKIN reluctant to load the starting gate, was rated three wide, found best stride late, missed the show award. BETTY'S SECRET raced off the pace, made no impact. TINA'S TAPIZAR showed good early speed, met an inner bid from the eventual winner at the top of the stretch and gave way, retreated then on.
