PARTYINTHESTREETS was unhurried early, trailed outside, rallied five wide into the turn, assumed command, drew clear and held under urging. CUTLASS KING challenged between horses in tight quarters, bumped entering the turn, put in a steady bid along the inside and was outfinished in a game effort. NATIONS DREAM was never far off the pace, awaited room on the turn, finished well when clear and earned show. HEARTBREAK GAME stalked the pace while racing outside, went widest in the drive and lacked the needed late rally. PETE'S LEGACY moved up along the rail to vie for the lead, bumped entering the turn, dropped back and gave way. BARREL THIEF broke sharply, led early, was in tight entering the turn and stopped.
