BROWN RESERVE was taken back off the leaders to track in behind inside, saved ground both turns, split foes in mid-stretch taking the lead, held. CATEGORY TEN settled outside at the back racing in the four to five path, swung seven wide into upper stretch, was gaining late and got up for second. CAMP DADDY was outsprinted to the first turn, switched outside foes and moved forward five then four wide, put a short head in front early up the backstretch forcing the pace, continued to press three deep into the far turn, kept on in the stretch but lost place late. REDFIELD broke awkwardly and bumped with a foe, was in tight entering the first turn easing back a bit, switched out early up the backstretch, advanced four to five wide heading to the far turn, was encouraged a bit past the three-eighths still wide, floated out a path or two leaving the second bend, lacked the needed late kick. BUREAU settled at the back off the rail, came out in late stretch and ran on mildly. MORE THAN DESTINY moved to the lead and shifted in on the first turn to the two path to dictate terms, was headed early up the backstretch, vied inside but off the fence through the far turn, weakened in the stretch. BOOGIE BODE bumped lightly with a rival at the start, switched out from two to three wide past the seven-eighths, moved forward briefly pressing between foes early up the backstretch, dropped back and faded.
