HANABI attended the early pace inside, was taken back at the half switching out off the rail, lost ground on the leading trio dropping back on the turn racing in the three to four path, swung six wide, rallied to surge to the lead a sixteenth out. PASSING PASSION vied outside going three to four wide on the turn, struck the lead in mid-stretch, was overtaken near the sixteenth pole and no match for the winner. SAFECRACKER SUE was outpaced early racing mid-pack, went three then four wide on the turn, ran on for show honors. JACK'S YELLOW ROSE was bumped hard a few times at the start, moved out and was encouraged along outside, shifted in leaving the backstretch to save ground inside on the turn, angled eight wide into upper stretch, rallied too late. COLOR ME FAST vied inside foes just off the rail, weakened. SHO DOMINA bumped a rival hard at the start but still made an early lead from between runners, continued to vie between foes through the turn, weakened in the stretch. HARPER BRIANA raced inside foes but off the rail heading into the turn, steadied slightly nearing the quarter pole, failed to rally. TRINITYTHREEINONE was bumped at the start, lacked early speed, made no impact.
