Ch. f, (Apr), by Breaking Lucky – Itsagimme's Girl , by Dominus . Trainer Maragh Collin. Bred by Mr & Mrs Gerald & Mary Bennett & Martin Goodell (Fla).

GIMME SOME LUCK broke a bit flat, then rushed up and did not corner well into the first turn, then took over to set the pace while clear in the widened the margin down the backside and raced in the two to three path on the far turn and came four wide off the turn and drifted out while still clear by the furlong marker and then drifted out significantly in the final sixteenth but remained clear to prove best while in the fifteen path at the wire. THUNDER PRINCESS was starting to move in nearing the first turn but angled back out to avoid trouble and was four wide into the first turn, settled on the outside and, then came under coaxing on the far turn and came five wide into the lane and rallied well to gain the place award. WUDHOOH was settled towards the inside and came four wide into the lane and finished willingly. EARLY DELIVERY checked nearing the first turn on the inside, reserved early and saved ground on the far turn and had a belated rally on the inside. READY TO BATTLE led entering the first turn and then relented and rated off the winner two wide and then tracked that rival and dropped to the inside entering the far turn but weakened. SEEKINGBYTHESTORM chased the early pace and had outside pursuit down the backside and weakened. FASHIONABLE KITTY was forced out four to five wide entering the first turn and then tracked the winner three wide but tired. JOCKEYS OBJECTION the number one against the winner the number two, after the STEWARDS reviewed the replays the OBJECTION was DISALLOWED and the race was left as is.
