B. c, (May), by Maximus Mischief – Proud Indian , by Indian Charlie . Trainer Joseph Saffie A Jr. Bred by John R Penn & Frank Penn (Ky).

SELF LOADER with the the pace from the start after alert break, narrowly held the advantage while between foes into the turn, came out a bit to be in the three path when shaking free into the lane, drew out while being kept to task. KY'S LAW in the second group while racing outside, moved closer four then five wide turning into the stretch, could do little with the winner to the wire while prevailing for the place. CANDY ROAD off a beat slow, lacked speed for three furlongs, cornered along the rail into the lane to move closer inside of the rest of the field, went a bit flat to the wire to finish up best of the rest. G SPEEDY in the second flight while racing toward the inside, followed the winner in the three path into the stretch, not enough late for the second spot while between horses at the wire. WAR TO REMEMBER away well, vied up front for three furlongs along the inside and began to weaken. SWEET INTERLUDE forwardly placed early outside, vied three wide late backstretch and into the turn, fell back off the lead pack in the late stages of the bend when floated out to the four path then continued to weaken to the wire.
