SUNFISH settled off the early pace, saved ground through the far turn, slipped through near the rail into the upper lane and finished strongly to edge clear under steady handling. CAMBER rated along under a firm hold near the inside, asked near the quarter pole and finished gamely to the wire racing three deep. SERRANIA set a pressured early pace, raced two wide between near the eighth pole and weakened. MO TOWN SOUL prompt the early leader from the outside and weakened through the drive. CAJUN EMPRESS dropped back to race mid pack, loomed four wide into the upper stretch but needed more. SWEET TASTE trailed early on, saved ground and never threatened.
