SKELLIG MICHAEL taken in hand early leaving the chute to be taken to the outside down the backside, pressed the pace through the turn, rallied to engage the pacesetter in upper stretch and pushed past that one late in the lane. NESHUME set the pace from the onset, battled with the winner in upper stretch when challenged, was outfinished in deep stretch and was clearly the second best. HAYDEN REMEMBERED stalked the leaders to the head of the stretch, failed to close on that pair and ran-on to hold the show. ROAR READY slow early to trail, was put to a drive on the turn and circled six wide with a grinding non-impactful bid. BRUSHFIRE went evenly never posing a threat. WORDONDASTREET was not a factor.
