SOSUA SUMMER stalked the pace with a three wide trip and stayed in the clear into the stretch, gaining to get up in the final strides. GIANT TEDDY got off slowly and was in tight in between horses early then ducked in to the rail and slipped through to grab the lead but was caught in the final strides. CRUZIN MAN broke sharply and set the pace but lugged out nearing the 3/8 pole, opening up the inside for GIANT TEDDY then was asked into the stretch but faltered late.
