JANANA HAN settled along the inside early and waited through the turn then lacked room at the 1/4 pole and made a rail rally to get up in time. THEORETICAL got squeezed at the start then assumed command but was hard to handle for the rider on the backstretch run then was all out in the stretch and battled, getting caught at the wire. INTRICITY got squeezed at the start then stalked the pace before making a three wide bid on the turn but just racing evenly late. KNOWS EVERYTHING broke inward then tucked in into the first turn and waited on the run along the backstretch then was asked nearing the 3/8 pole but made no rally. CAMBER broke outward the settled before being asked while four wide on the turn but flattened out in the stretch.
