Ch. g, (Mar), by American Pharoah – You Make Luvin Fun, by A.P. Indy. Trainer Haran John. Bred by Mount Brilliant Farm & Ranch LLC (Ky).

GLOBAL EMPIRE, urged from the gate, angled out and stalked BLURT, went after that one leaving the far turn, wrested command near the five sixteenths, was coaxed clear into the lane then steadily widened while under a stiff drive. BLURT cleared early, set the pace towards the inner rail, shifted out after the leader cleared into the stretch, chased on willingly past midstretch, switched over to the left lead with about a sixteenth to go, faded but remained well in front of the rest. NEW YEAR SURPRISE, climbling early, dropped in and edged up nearing the half, failed to quicken with the top pair past the three eighths, remained inside, faded but did edge out an outer for the show. U S HONOUR NAP, four wide into the first turn, remained wide stalking the pace, was under a ride pursuing past the five sixteenths and faded. LUCKY BOSS saved ground, failed to kick on leaving the half mile marker and faltered.
