B. m, (Mar), by Cairo Prince – Stormy Encounter, by Fed Biz. Trainer Retana Gabe. Bred by Brereton C Jones (Ky).

SOME OF IT, lightly bumped at the break, raced four wide the first turn, rated back off foes near the five eighths, edged up between runners leaving the far turn then dropped in to continue her advance, shifted back out while gaining on the leader nearing the lane, rolled to command approaching mid stretch then drew out under a drive. HOT DAME stalked two to three wide, took closer order under asklng and outside a rival around the final turn, pursued four wide into the stretch, wandered outward in the final furlong but managed to save the place. MORNING LINE NEWS hopped slightly at the break but still was forward, saved ground into and through the backstretch run, steadied off heels into the far turn, came out and worked between rivals near the sixteenth marker and continued on with effort. SHE BE SHEEHAN leaned in slightly and bumped with the winner leaving the gate, lost ground five wide into and around the first turn, remained well off the inside and failed to generate a rally. SKY RAVEN, eager to go early, opened up while saving ground and under a light hole, remained well in front leaving the far turn, had her lead quickly evaporate past the five sixteenths then tired through the final furlong.
