Ch. c, (May), by Speightstown – Filfila, by Kitten's Joy. Trainer Cox Brad H. Bred by Shadwell Farm LLC (Ky).

ELNAJD settled back early on and raced off the pace a couple lengths behind the pack in the three path then angled out coming off the bend into the eight path and made a huge late rally from the outside and closed up to prove best. INITIALIZE set a pressured pace along the inside and kept on through the stretch inching away from the pack through the upper but was caught at the wire. DHABAB (IRE) broke out and bumped into ANMER HALL then raced into the second flight just behind the lead in the four path and advanced around the outside nearing the quarter pole but needed more to beat the top two and settled for the show award. ANMER HALL was pinched at the break and settled towards the back in the third flight while being four wide then tipped out seven wide after passing the quarter pole and vied from the outside but just missed the show award. BAL A KAZOO was forward early and shifted up heading down the turn from the three path and pressed the pace and kept on until the upper and weakened in the stretch. LEBOWSKI tracked the pace from the inside in the second flight through most of the race and kept on entering the upper but lacked enough kick to hit the board while in the stretch. MURDOCK tracked the pace between rivals in the second flight while being three wide and floated out into the upper but weakened in the drive. BIG TO DO settled back early after the break and raced off the pace along the inside around the hill but was no menace. BANNED FOR LIFE was in tight at the start and settled towards the back of the pack after the break in the five path, then swung out nine wide nearing the upper and faded. EAMONN was bumped at the break and trailed the field from the three path around the hill but was never a factor. SCHWARZMEIER was bumped at the start then rushed up and pressed the pace around the hill from the five to four path and tired out after entering the upper stretch.
